About us

KickYourGig specializes in crafting a diverse range of e-commerce solutions tailored to meet the unique needs of businesses. From dynamic online marketplaces that connect buyers and sellers seamlessly to focused single product stores that highlight unique offerings, our platforms enhance user experience and drive sales. We empower businesses with robust multi-vendor systems, subscription-based services for consistent revenue, and specialized digital goods stores for secure sales of e-books and software. Our dropshipping websites eliminate inventory management headaches, while B2B e-commerce sites streamline bulk ordering. We also tap into niche markets with tailored solutions, leverage social media for direct sales, and create engaging auction platforms that excite users. KickYourGig excels in developing e-commerce aggregators for effortless product comparisons, mobile apps for on-the-go shopping, flash sale sites to drive urgency, wholesale platforms for retailers, and custom product design stores that encourage creativity and personalization. With our expertise, we help businesses stand out in the competitive online landscape and achieve their e-commerce goals.

Types of subscription business model

There are three overarching types of subscriptions: curation, replenishment, and access. They all have their perks and drawbacks, so identifying the best fit for you will come down to the types of physical and digital products you're selling, your capacity, and your unique business ideas and goals.

Curation business model (i.e. subscription boxes)

This is the most common subscription business model, popularized by companies like Birchbox, Blue Apron, and Stitch Fix. These are your subscription box with
